

INNOVATE
CALGARY

presents the 2011
SPEAKER SERIES

Session #1

So you want to be a Tech Entrepreneur?

Tuesday, November 1, 11:30 AM - 1:30 PM

Cassio Room, MacEwan Conference Centre
University of Calgary

Interested in becoming a tech entrepreneur? Find out if you have what it takes to succeed. Join us for a panel discussion with seasoned tech entrepreneurs who will share their insights, expertise and experience.

The 6th annual Speaker Series will provide an opportunity for interactive dialogue on technology transfer and business incubation. Hear success stories, learn from industry experts and peers, and expand your network. Space is limited so register today!

Seminars are free and open to the public. Lunch provided.
RSVP required to events@innovatecalgary.com before Friday, October 28.
